The Price of a Fur Coat.
Dr. Anna Howard Shaw said at a dinner in Philadelphia, according to the Bulletin:

"I'd rather see a woman wrapped up in politics than wrapped up in dress. It's less expensive, too."

"They talk a lot about these antis, these home bodies, but I was visiting such a woman once; it was about this time of the year, and the little daughter of the house began to read from one of her schoolbooks."

"In winter," she read, "every animal puts on a new fur coat."

"But the little girl's father turned pale, shuddered, and snatched away the book."

"Alice be still," he murmured, hoarsely. "Don't you know your mother is lying down in the next room?"

Serving Two Masters.
A. B. Storms, former president of the State College, Ames, Iowa, in his lecture "Are We Sane or Insane?" tells the following incident in his discussion of the mad rush of American youth to get positions—to get at something that will bring them money, says Case and Comment.

"My sister, who served as a missionary, once asked a raw Norwegian girl if she didn't want to serve the Lord. 'Nope,' said the girl, 'Aye got a job.'"

Why Not a Strong Sunday School Organization Here

(By Rev. E. O. Smithdeal.)
For many reasons it is desirable to have all the Sunday school of a county organized into a compact unit, a few of which reasons may be briefly stated as follows:

1. Because it offers a common basis of union for all denominations, and cements them together in the spirit of friendship, good-will, and co-operation.

2. It will unify and strengthen the Sunday school forces, by bringing together all those interested in the great movement, in the mutual exchange of views and suggestions.

3. It will link the weak organizations with the stronger ones and make available to the former the funded experience and capable leadership of the latter.

Enjoyable Reception

Mrs. V. D. Brown gave a most delightful "al fresco" reception last Thursday evening at her home on Thirteenth street in honor of the Baraca and Philathea classes of the First Methodist church. The lawn, lighted by Japanese lanterns and the beautiful "harvest moon," presented a very inviting and festive appearance.

Miss Estelle Wolfe received the guests and also acted as registrar. Autumn flowers were used in the decorative plan. Games, music and merry conversation made the time pass all too swiftly. Delicious refreshments were served by Misses Charlotte Garth and Clarissa Abernethy.

There were seventy-five guests present, including the Baracas and Philatheas, Mrs. J. G. Garth and quite a number of the Presbyterian young people. Before leaving the Philatheas gathered around the piano, and accompanied by Miss Clara Bowles, sang their national hymn.

It was with great reluctance that the class bade Mrs. Brown good-night, each one vowing her an ideal hostess.

We wish to take this opportunity of publicly expressing to Mrs. Brown our sincere appreciation of her kind hospitality and to assure her that everything done for our comfort and pleasure was most thoroughly enjoyed.

Hold Prayer Service

The Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church observed their special service of prayer for state missions Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was largely attended and much interest was shown.

EARL MACK WEDS MISS CAIN, POPULAR MORGANTON GIRL

Morganton, Sept. 29.—A wedding of unusual interest occurred here last night when Miss Mary Cain, daughter of Town Manager C. T. Cain, became the bride of the well-known ball player and manager, Earl Mack. The wedding was a pretty home affair and the ceremony was performed by Rev. H. F. Marion of Asheville. Manager Jack Corbett of Asheville was best man.

The bride is one of Morganton's most popular young ladies and has a wide circle of friends throughout this section and is also well known in Raleigh, where she resided at the beginning of the romance which culminated tonight. The groom is one of the widest known and most popular men in North Carolina baseball.

REVIVAL TO BEGIN AT BETHEL

Revival services will begin at Bethel Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and continue through the following week. Rev. J. N. Patten, a very successful revivalist, has been secured to do the preaching, and all denominations are cordially invited to attend and co-operate in the services. There will be three services on Sunday, and dinner will be served on the ground. This is "Home Coming" day. Come and meet your friends, and enjoy the services.

RANGE DEMONSTRATION SOON

The Abernethy Hardware Company has arranged with the manufacturers of South Bend Malleable Ranges to have a demonstration here October 6 to 12, when the good points of these stoves will be explained for the benefit of the public. The ladies of Hickory and this section will avail themselves of the opportunity of learning a little more about cooking ranges, and especially the South Bend variety.

Informed Him.

The famous botanist was passing slowly along the county road, his eyes, as usual, roaming from side to side for new plants to study, says the Otter Herald-Dispatch.

Suddenly, an eager look swept across his features and he leaned over a low fence inclosing a cottage garden. He had found a plant he did not know.

What could it be? If only he had a specimen of it to study?

At that moment a shock-headed lad strolled along the road and stopped to gaze open-mouthed at him.

"I say!" called the botanist urgently. "See that plant there—that pale pink one in the corner? Do you know it?"

"Uh-uh!" said the country boy briefly.

"What's its name! Do you know what family it belongs to?"

The lad jerked a grubby thumb over his shoulder toward the little cottage as he spoke:

"Higginses!"

No Objection.

"Before we take you on the jury, Mr. Smith, we must ask you whether you have formed any opinion of the prisoner's guilt or innocence."

"No," said Smith grimly, according to London Opinion. "No, I ain't formed no opinion."

"And, Mr. Smith, have you, or have you not, any conscientious objections to capital punishment?"

"No," said Smith, more grimly, "not in this case."

ASHEVILLE FLORIST SERIOUSLY INJURED

A report from Asheville at 10:30 last night stated that Mr. D. A. Lashley, who was terribly injured when a pillar which he was removing at his green house fell on him, was not expected to recover, and his brother, Mr. W. H. Boyd, and sister, Mrs. S. C. Eaton, left at 11:30 for his bedside. Mrs. Boyd had not heard from Asheville this morning, but was expecting a message at any time. Last night there were no hopes for his recovery. Mr. Lashley moved to Asheville from Wake county about 16 years ago. He was married to Miss Bessie Boyd of Asheville and of this union seven children were born. Friends of the family here were hoping today that Mr. Lashley might recover.

MANY IN NEWTON FOR LIPPARD TRIAL

Newton, Sept. 29.—Most of Mountain Creek township was here yesterday attending the trial of "Bud" Lippard, charged with retailing in six cases. The afternoon was taken up with hearing eight witnesses, and there were a dozen more to hear today.

The affair rivals anything the ordinary superior court has to offer. Frank Sigman, brother-in-law of Lippard, alleges he bought three pints from Bud while the latter was exhorting sinners at Balls Creek camp meeting. The defense offers testimony to disprove it. Four lawyers represent the prosecution and three the defense.

WANT LICORICE

Winston-Salem, Sept. 29.—Representative Charles M. Stedman of the fifth North Carolina district, spent the greater part of yesterday here conferring with representatives of tobacco manufacturers regarding the effect upon their business of the action of the British and French governments in holding up shipments to the United States of licorice root. The root is used in preparing certain tobaccos for the market. Mr. Stedman stated he would take the matter up personally with Secretary of State Lansing.
